Dear Eric:

Cathy has asked me to respond to you by sending the photocopy you requested of the counterfeit Yorktown $40 note of 11 April 1778.

After several trial runs, the enclosed are the clearest we can get and hope they will be of use to you.

I mentioned to you my early interest in the Colonial and Continental notes and have just a modest collection. My accumulated reference material is as follows:

1. Scott catalog 1878-9. Colonial, Continental and Confederate Currency.
2. Brief Notice of Continental Paper Money Prepared for the Purpose of Refreshing the Memory of those who purchased Revolutionary Currency at The Ladies' Fair for The Floating Chapel, Phila., 1851, by Samuel Breck, noted authority on early banking and currency. 8pp.
3. Historical Sketch of Continental Paper Money by Samuel Breck, Phila. 1863, 33pp.
4. Sound Currency, N.Y. Feb. 15, 1898. South Carolina's First Paper Money (written in 1739 - author unknown) 13pp. Published by the Sound Currency Committee of the Reform Club.

Incidentally, I have an unlisted note of South Carolina, of which I enclose photocopy.

I enjoyed talking at length with you at the ANA Convention and our meeting with the South African Mint Master and his wife.

Best regards from both of us.

Sincerely,

Earl

Dear Earl:

Thank you, very much, for your letter of September 3, 1969. It was very nice getting to know you at the Philadelphia convention.

There were three separate counterfeits made during the Revolutionary War of the 8d0 Yorktown issue and I wanted to check this particular one against others in an effort to improve my description. You are very nice to give me the opportunity.

With respect to pictures of this kind of material, I can assure you that Xerox works much better than the process you used. However, it is clear enough for study purposes.

With respect to the South Carolina note of 1s 3d, I thought I had listed it on page 323 of my book. There is a 2s 6d which I did not list and which will be in the revision, if ever that comes. If there is something you noticed, which I did not notice in the one you enclosed, please advise me.

Our library is rather extensive on the subject of Colonial and Continental currency (as well as other American subjects) and if, at any time, you need any information, please do not hesitate to ask for it.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Eric,

I enjoyed your interesting talk and slide show at the St. Louis Manuscript Society meeting.

Would you perchance have an extra ~~Type~~ Yorktown note available for sale? The condition can be good - very good. If so, I would be interested.

If you should have a schedule of store area requirements, my real estate group has an interesting location available in suburban Philadelphia.

Of possible interest to you, I have located following:

1. 1738 Province of Pennsa. General Loan office Bond Folio size - fine condition $30.00

2. Colonial Governor - Sir Francis Bernard - handwritten message to Legislature on Bill for printing paper money and Kings Instructions against it. August 1758 - 6¼ x 7¼ inches - inlaid in larger sheet. $120.00

Best regards to you and Mrs. Newman.

Sincerely,

Earl Moore

Dear Earl:

It was very kind of you to write and mention my talk at the Manuscript Society.

In your catalogue which you sent with it, I would like Item No. 71, being the newspaper article on the counterfeits.

I believe I have a Loan Office Bond from Pennsylvania.

The other item you mention about the handwritten message is a little far afield for me.

I have checked my Yorktowns and was shocked to find that I have no $4 duplicate.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Earl:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in mentioning the recovery of some of my items from the ANS robbery. However, I was particularly pleased that Robert Morris is your favorite person and that you enjoyed reading my article about him.

Please send me Item 180 for examination. I would also like items 184 and 242.

Best wishes to Katherine.

Kindest regards,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Eric,

As promised to you at the Atlanta convention, I enclose for your library, with our compliments:

Re-prints....

Greenbacks for Bonds, satirical

United States Counterfeit Detector, 16pp., by John F. Beazell, 1868, with illustrated Detector.

The Government Tests for Instantaneous Detection, 4 pp, by Gen. J.W. Beazell, 1886.

I have tried to find if the Beazells were related to each other, but met ith no results.

Cathy and I appreciated the assistance you extended to her at Atlanta in finding the Connecticut notes for her.

I trust your A.N.S. meeting was enjoyable. Cathy was pleased to see you again at the meeting.

Best wishes to you and Mrs. Newman.

Sincerely,
Earl

I was under the impression that I gave a set of the above items to Gene Hessler at the St. Louis convention. Perhaps you did not see them. At any rate, you have extras.
